for maintaining a high quality of life.*

Bozeman Health

*Take a breath,
we're here for you.*

DISCLAIMER

Bozeman Health provides this directory of community services for informational purposes. We recommend the following when using these services:

1. Investigate the background and references of agencies or private individuals.
2. Ensure anyone hired for home care is registered as an independent contractor with the State of Montana or employed by a licensed agency.
3. Verify the independent contractor or agency is licensed, insured, carries workers' compensation and has professional liability insurance.
4. Ask others about their experience with the agency or individual.
5. Carefully review any contracts, ask questions, and ensure you understand the terms before signing.

Bozeman Health does not endorse the listed service providers. While we strive for accuracy, information may change.

ADVANCE CARE PLANNING

An advance directive is a legally binding document that gives instructions for your health care in the event that you are no longer able to make or communicate those decisions yourself. This planning can help you and your loved ones prepare for the future and reduce stress. Advance Care Planning is for all stages of life: from unexpected accidents to end of life.

In the state of Montana, some website to explore for Advance Directives documents include:

MEDICARE

Medicare is divided up into two parts—Part A (hospitalization) and Part B (provider services). Each part covers different services and carries different out-of-pocket costs. You can buy insurance that fills in the gaps. See helpful resources below.

CSI regulates all Medicare Supplement insurance sold in Montana. If you have questions, contact CSI Consumer Services at 800-332-6148 or 406-444-2040.

The Montana Department of Health and Human Services (DPHHS) through State Health Insurance Assistance Program (SHIP) offers trained, in-person assistance at locations throughout the state to answer questions.

Medicare Counseling, HRDC | 406-587-4486

Counselors help Medicare beneficiaries understand coverage options, including Part D, Medicare Advantage, and Medigap plans, and assist with applications for Medicaid, Medicare Savings Programs and other aid programs.
